

Houseboat Vacation

Every houseboating lake in North America is unique and every houseboat rental is different. Cruise gentle waters surrounded by forests or sheltered by dramatic red rock cliffs. Enjoy a luxury houseboat with all the amenities or a comfortable more compact houseboat. Rent personal watercraft or speed boats to experience even more of our lakes. A houseboat vacation is one of a kind—basking in warm sunlight by day and sleeping under the stars at night.

One of the best ways to beat the heat in the summer is heading to the water—whether that means an ocean, lake, river, or canal. But why rent a house near the water when you can stay on the water? There are all sorts of floating accommodations across the United States. Some are permanently docked in marina neighborhoods, like those in Seattle and Sausalito. Other cruise freely in popular houseboating destinations like Lake Powell, Lake Mead, and Lake Havasu. You'll find houseboats floating in places you may not expect, such as a private lake in Virginia or a glamp site on the Mississippi River.
