

SHORE EXCURSIONS

SKAGWAY, ALASKA

KLONDIKE SUMMIT & GOLDRUSH HISTORY

$46.99 / Adult

$27.99 / Child

Location: Skagway, Alaska

Duration: Unlimited Hours

Activity: Mild

OVERVIEW: Travel by motorcoach for a narrated tour that begins with stories about the famous and foolhardy who lived in Skagway during its gold rush era. Then hit the Klondike Highway and travel up to the White Pass Summit, passing historical points of interest such as Pitchfork Falls and Dead Horse Gulch. On the ride back to town, visit Gold Rush Cemetery, the final resting place for many of Skagway's most colorful characters.

THE BIG NUGGET

$116.99 / Adult

$97.99 / Child

Location: Skagway, Alaska

Duration: 5 Hours

Activity: Mild

OVERVIEW: Experience everything Klondike Gold Fields has to offer by touring all of its popular venues in one day. Head to the Gold Rush Restaurant and Brewery to learn about micro-brews and enjoy a quick tasting before meeting a musher and his dog sled team. Please drink responsibly. Discover the cold of the North with the 40 Below Experience and learn about the art of gold panning. Then, enjoy a smoked barbeque lunch at the Klondike Grill Buffet.

NOTE:

- For the consumption of alcohol, guest must be 21 years old. Please drink responsibly.

TO THE SUMMIT

$46.99 / Adult

$23.99 / Child

Location: Skagway, Alaska

Duration: 1 ½ Hours

Activity: Mild

OVERVIEW: Your adventure begins in Skagway, Alaska with a guided drive along the historic Klondike Highway to the Summit of White Pass. Originally used by dog teams, horses, and wagons, Klondike Highway is one of the state's most beautiful mountain roads. See Dead Horse Trail, the White Pass Railroad, and Pitchfork Falls as you continue your ascent. Once you reach the Summit, enjoy a magnificent view of the scenic mountain landscape 3,292 feet above sea level.

SHORE EXCURSIONS

SKAGWAY STREETCAR TOUR

$49.00 / Adult

$29.00 / Child

Location: Skagway, Alaska

Duration: 1 ½ Hours

Activity: Mild

OVERVIEW: See all the points of interest in Skagway on an informative, fun-filled streetcar ride. Climb aboard a 1927 touring bus, replete with period-costumed guides. Explore the waterfront, tour the National Park Historic District, take in panoramic views of spectacular misty mountains from the Scenic Overlook, visit the Gold Rush Cemetery for a recounting of the legendary Soapy Smith gunfight, and travel through Skagway's residential neighborhoods, known for their lovely flower gardens.

BEST OF SKAGWAY: RAILWAY, GOLD & HISTORIC SALOON

$302.99 / Adult

$188.99 / Child

Location: Skagway, Alaska

Duration: 6 ½ Hours

Activity: Mild

OVERVIEW: This 6½-hour combo excursion includes a ride along the White Pass & Yukon Route Railway, a salmon bake at Liarsville Gold Rush Trail Camp, and cocktails at Red Onion Saloon. Hop in a vintage railcar for a journey along the "Railway of the World," as you view sky-high mountains, plunging gorges, gushing waterfalls and tall evergreens along a narrow-gauge railroad. In Fraser, BC you'll hop off and take a motor coach through scenic valleys to the Liarsville Gold Rush Trail Camp. Meet costumed storytellers who perform a rousing melodrama about Alaska's Klondike-era prospecting days. Here you'll also learn how to pan for gold and savor an authentic salmon bake in true Alaskan style, complete with grilled wild salmon, baked chicken, salad, baked beans, cornbread, and dessert. A short drive back into town leads you to the historic Red Onion Saloon, the city's once-thriving brothel dating back to 1897. Follow the madams upstairs to the Bombay room to check out the bordello's old relics and artifacts whilst sipping on a complimentary glass of champagne. Cheers to the ultimate Skagway adventure.