The building is historic in that it was built through different stages over the space of 100 years starting in the early 1800s. Although in recent years the property has undergone significant refurbishing, it still maintains its classic look with ample common spaces, high ceilings, mosaic, marble and wooden fixtures. The hotel boasts an Olympic swimming pool with large adjacent sun-bathing areas, as well as an indoor and an outdoor bar. There are 2 restaurant/breakfast areas, the main one located on the roof top overlooking the bay. Free Wi-Fi access is available in all guestrooms and public areas of the hotel. There is a small fitness center and ample common areas are available for guests to relax and enjoy a cocktail either by the pool area or in the spaces adjacent to the main lobby.
